POLAR CIRCLE AIR-CRUISE

February 16-25, 2014

Travel Program

Day 1 - Feb 16 ANTARCTICA XXI staff welcomes you in Punta Arenas, Chile. Transfer to your hotel and attend a briefing that provides important information about your voyage and reviews the essential guidelines for Antarctic visitors. A welcome dinner introduces you to the local gastronomy as you meet fellow adventurers from around the world.

NOTE: Passengers should plan to be in Punta Arenas at 15:00 hours, at the latest. Pick-up at the Punta Arenas airport and transfer to the hotel cannot be guaranteed for travellers arriving later than 15:00 hours.

Day 2 - Feb 17 A smooth two-hour flight takes you efficiently from Punta Arenas to King George Island, in the South Shetland Islands. Your Antarctic adventure begins as you exit the airplane and the clear Antarctic air fills your lungs for the first time. Explore the area surrounding Chile's Frei Station and Russia's Bellingshausen station, before boarding a Zodiac to embark your expedition vessel.

Day 3 to 8 – Feb 18 to 23 Sail along ice-filled fjords and among spectacular icebergs, while enjoying the company of sea birds, penguins, seals and whales. Visit the South Shetland Islands and the western coast of the Antarctic Peninsula, disembarking by Zodiac each day. In small groups, hike to extraordinary sites and take part in exploratory Zodiac excursions to otherwise inaccessible areas. Expert polar guides share their passion for Antarctica through an engaging program of illustrated presentations, and lead you ashore to interpret the wildlife, the history and the many wonders of the Antarctic environment. From the glass-enclosed lounge, enjoy spectacular views while sharing your daily adventures with fellow guests over a drink.

The goal of the expedition is to sail far south in the attempt of reaching the Polar Circle. The Expedition Team sets the specific voyage route based on local conditions, and takes advantage of the ever-changing opportunities provided by Nature. Flexibility will be the key to a successful voyage. Your expedition may include visits to sites such as Port Lockroy, Petermann Island, Paradise Bay, the Lemaire Channel, Prospect Point or other magnificent places. Each voyage is unique and each is crafted to provide the best possible overview of the varied Antarctic environment.

Days 9 Feb 24 Return to King George Island and bid farewell to Antarctica before boarding the flight back to Punta Arenas. Upon arrival at the airport in Punta Arenas, you are welcomed by ANTARCTICA XXI staff and transferred to your hotel.

Day 10 - Feb 25 The program ends at the hotel after breakfast.

This is more than a photo tour, this is a workshop! This is a unique opportunity (for no more than a few dozen people, with a 1 to 10 participant/leader ratio) to visit one of the most amazing places on this planet led by world renowned photographers - John Paul Caponigro and Seth Resnick and special guests - who will help you boost your photographic skills, creativity, and artistic vision. Creativity, composition, exposure, workflow, and post-processing are only a few of the topics presented. You'll be able to participate in all regularly scheduled public cruise events plus our private presentations. We'll have Zodiacs dedicated to our photography group only with one instructor guiding each boat. We'll work closely with the crew to shoot in the best times at the most beautiful places. Most importantly, we'll work closely with you to help you make the most of the adventure and get the best results possible. You'll benefit tremendously from our advice, guidance, lectures, demonstrations, reviews, special pre/post voyage webinars and one-on-one attention – plus the comraderie of like-minded talented participants. You'll experience world class locations and world class guidance.

NOTE: ANTARCTICA XXI is responsible for the travel arrangement and the delivery of the expedition, while the photography instruction program is the responsibility of Digital Photo Destinations. The participation fee includes a component that is due to Digital Photo Destinations for organizing and delivering the photography instruction program. ANTARCTICA XXI will collect this component from participants upon reservation and remit it to Digital Photo Destinations. Any questions, service inquiries, claims, or refund requests regarding the photography instruction program should be directed to Digital Photo Destinations at jpc@digitalphotodestinations.com or seth@digitalphotodestinations.com.

Exceeding luggage will be kept in custody by ANTARCTICA XXI and will be returned to passengers upon their return from Antarctica at the port/airport of arrival corresponding to each voyage.

Medical insurance ANTARCTICA XXI requires participants to be adequately covered by a medical insurance, including aero-medical evacuation from Antarctica.

Cancellation insurance ANTARCTICA XXI strongly urges participants to be adequately covered by cancellation insurance.

Participation Form Passengers are required to fill and sign an on-line Participation Form, and to return it to ANTARCTICA XXI duly filled at least 120 days prior to departure (see www.mytrip-xxi.com).

Itinerary Every effort will be made to adhere to the planned program. However, it must be realized that with this type of adventurous travel to Antarctica, changes to the itinerary may occur due to severe and unpredictable weather. We need to emphasize the fact that weather conditions are unpredictable and that safety is always our first concern. For this reason ANTARCTICA XXI reserves the right to change the itinerary here described due to weather conditions or other factors beyond ANTARCTICA XXI's control without consulting the participants.

Flight connexions A tight time-schedule connection with an Antarctic expedition is unwise. For this reason, ANTARCTICA XXI strongly suggests that a flexible air ticket be held for your journey home.

Contingency Plan In case that the flight to or from Antarctica cannot take place due to unfavourable weather conditions either at point of origin and/or destination, ANTARCTICA XXI will apply the Contingency Plan corresponding to each voyage.

ANTARCTICA XXI

THE FIRST AIR CRUISE TO ANTARCTICA

USEFUL TIPS

Suggested clothing The average temperature in the Antarctic Peninsula area ranges round about 0°C (32°F), although sometimes it may get a little lower because of the chill factor caused by the wind. For this reason, it is best to wear several layers of light, warm clothing, with a windproof and waterproof jacket and pants as outside layer. The suggest clothing for Antarctica is very similar to skiing equipment.

- Thermal socks
- Thermal underwear, including sweatshirts and turtlenecks.
- Fleece jacket and trousers
- Waterproof hooded parka
- Insulated waterproof trousers
- Thermal gloves or mittens.
- Polar cap, hat or balaclava hood
- Swimsuit (for possible hot spring dips)
- Comfortable cloths to wear on board (temperature 20°-22°C or 68-72F)
- Comfortable rubber-soled shoes to wear on board.

Waterproof boots As most landings in Antarctica are “wet landings”, the best footwear is knee-high waterproof boots. You will not need to carry them with you since ANTARCTICA XXI will provide you with a pair of thermal rubber boots before arriving in Antarctica.

Face protection Good quality UV filtering sunglasses are essential. Glacier glasses have leather flaps at the sides to stop the light from passing through. Due to the high reflectance of UV radiation, you will also need good sun block lotion for your face (protection factor 30 and above) and lip balm.

On-line Gear Shop ANTARCTICA XXI is pleased to offer to its travellers the exciting opportunity to get equipped for their Antarctic air-cruises through its on-line store, the ANTARCTICA XXI’s Gear Shop. With a simple click on the “Gear Shop” button in www.antarcticaxxi.com or directly on <http://antarcticaxxi.newheadings.com> you may enjoy browsing and shopping a unique collection of high quality apparel and gear that will help you get ready for your forthcoming polar adventure.

Photography Digital Photo Destinations will provide participants with comprehensive suggestions and advice on preparing for the expeditions, including which photography equipment to take along.

And furthermore... Do not forget to take with you:

- Personal medications
- Backpack to carry your belongings during shore excursions.

In such event, the Passenger has the option within five (5) days of such notice to accept and pay the Carrier the increase in fare or to notify the carrier that he cancels this Ticket, in which event he will receive a full refund.

What is Covered by Fare. Unless otherwise stated in the Cruise program or literature for which this Ticket is issued, the fare shown on the Ticket coupon, or as otherwise agreed to in writing, includes Cruise passage, food and accommodations while on board the Vessel. Written Approval Required. Stopovers (getting off from the Vessel at an intermediate port or place) will be allowed only if as shown on the Ticket coupon or with prior written approval of the Carrier. All stopovers shall be at the Passenger's sole risk and the Carrier shall not be or become liable to or responsible for the Passenger in any way while the Passenger is not on board the Vessel.

If the Passenger interrupts the Cruise and gets off the Vessel at an intermediate port or place without either provision in the Ticket or the prior written approval of the Carrier, the Passenger does so at the Passenger's own risk and expense. No refund will be made in such cases. If disembarkation violates any law, including United States Code, Title 46 Section 289, the Passenger shall be liable to reimburse the Carrier for any penalty provided by statute, law or governmental regulation.

It is the Passenger's sole responsibility and risk to satisfy all requirements of all immigration, port or health authorities of the port(s) of disembarkation and of the country of ultimate destination including but not limited to passports, visas, vaccination, inoculations, health certificates and all other documents required. It is the Passenger's sole responsibility to meet all requirements to immediately land at any port and be finally and without delay accepted in the country or countries. The Passenger must repay the Carrier for any damages, expenses or fines the Carrier may incur as a result of non-compliance with any of these requirements. The Carrier, its officers, employees, servants or agents are not liable for any information or advice they may give in connection with these kinds of requirements. The Carrier shall not in any circumstances whatsoever and whether or not such documents are held or produced by the Passenger, be liable for the consequence of any insufficiency or irregularity in such documents or the non-compliance by the Passenger with any laws or governmental regulations.

The Passenger agrees to pay the Carrier's charges for the Passenger's food and accommodation during the period of detention, payable day by day, if the Passenger is maintained on board the Vessel, and for all other quarantine fees and expenses assessed or incurred on his account.

Refusal of Permission to Land. If immigration or other government authorities refuse a Passenger permission to land, or give orders for deportation, no claim by the Passenger against the Carrier on that account shall be valid.

No Pets. No pets or animals are allowed on the Vessel.

8. CARRIER NOT LIABLE FOR PASSENGER'S MEDICAL CARE

Medical Services on Vessel. The Carrier does not undertake that a physician or medical personnel will be aboard the Vessel. If the Vessel does carry a physician or medical personnel, then they are independent contractors and work directly for the Passengers. Any physician or other medical personnel that renders emergency treatment and/or performs medical or surgical services, does so at the rates fixed in the "Schedule of Physician's Charges" posted aboard the Vessel or as otherwise agreed to, or in the absence thereof, then at customary rates.

Consent of Treatment. If, in the opinion of the carrier, a Passenger in need of medical or surgical services is unable to request it, the Passenger hereby expressly consents to such treatment, if any, and to pay the cost thereof charged by the Vessel's physician or other physician or medical personnel designated by the Carrier who in doing so is acting on behalf of the Passenger.

Treatment at Passenger's Risk. All medicines and all medical or surgical services furnished by the Vessel's physician, if any, or any other physician or medical personnel (all of whom are engaged by the Passenger as independent contractors) or ship's officers, employees or agents of the Carrier, shall be and are accepted by and at the Passenger's sole risk and expense, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for the quality, nature or consequence thereof.

Passenger's Obligation to Report Medical Conditions. Before this Ticket is issued, the Passenger must report to the Carrier or its general agent, all pre-existing illness, disabilities or pregnancy and all other conditions for which the Passenger may require medical attention during the course of the Cruise. If any such condition arises after the Ticket is issued, the Passenger must report all such conditions to the Carrier, Purser or Vessel's Master or physician, if any, before boarding, or if the Passenger has boarded the Vessel, then before the Vessel leaves port. The Carrier, Vessel and the Vessel's physician, if any, shall have no liability in connection with any such condition.

Lack of Obligation to Examine Passenger. Neither the carrier, nor the Vessel's physician, if any, has any obligation to examine any Passenger for any purpose prior to boarding or sailing.

Refusal of Passage. The Carrier reserves the right to refuse passage to a Passenger who has failed to give proper notice of any disability, illness, pregnancy or other condition requiring special care, attention or treatment or who in the Carrier's sole opinion is physically or mentally unfit for the Cruise. In such event, the Passenger is not entitled to any refund of fare.

9. CARRIER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL, SUBSTITUTE VESSELS AND CHANGE SCHEDULES AND PORTS

Changes in Vessel and Schedule. The Carrier may at any time, without notice, cancel or change the date of sailing or substitute vessels. The Passenger will have no claim against the Carrier for hotel or board bills, traveling expenses or other loss, delay, inconvenience or expense whatsoever by reason of any cancellation, change, or delay of sailing or in arrival of the Vessel.

Approximate Schedules. Sailing schedules and times of arrival and departure are only approximate and may be altered in the discretion of the Master or Carrier. Costs of food, accommodations and other expenses ashore are the sole responsibility of the Passenger, even if incurred while awaiting transshipment or a connecting carrier.

Deviations. Before or after the commencement of the Cruise, the Vessel and her Master shall have liberty to: proceed without pilots; tow and assist vessels, including those of the Carrier, in all situations; deviate from the usual advertised or scheduled route; put back to or into or to call or stop, or omit to call or stop, at any port or place, on land or at sea, in or out of the route of the usual, advertised or scheduled Cruise, even though doing so may involve going backwards or away from the port of destination; adjust compasses; dry-dock, go on ways and/or be towed. These things may be done for any reasons which are sufficient in the judgment of the Carrier or the Master, including but not limited to, offering or rendering assistance in an effort to preserve life or property.

Governmental and Underwriters' Orders. The Vessel and Master shall have the liberty to comply with all orders given by governmental or ruling authorities and the underwriters of the Vessel and the Carrier.

Interruption of Cruise. If the Vessel's Cruise is interrupted or if the Vessel is unduly delayed or prevented from proceeding in the ordinary course by; act of God; perils of the sea, harbors, rivers, or other navigable waters; act of any governmental or ruling authority; epidemic; collision; stranding; fire; faults or errors in navigation or management of this or of any other Vessel; seizure of the Vessel under legal process; any abrupt or unexpected increase in the cost of fuel or shortage of fuel; war; hostilities; riots; strikes or labor stoppages; or any other cause or circumstance beyond the Carrier's responsibility or control, the Carrier shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate the Cruise and to land the Passenger and his Baggage at any port or place at which the Vessel may call at or may then be. In such event, this Contract shall be considered to have been fully performed as if the Cruise were completed and the responsibility of the carrier shall cease without any liability on the part of the Carrier to refund any part of the fare.

In the event that the Carrier cancels the Cruise for any one or more of the reasons set forth above and the Passenger has not yet embarked, the responsibility of the Carrier shall cease upon such cancellation without any liability on the part of the carrier to refund any part of the fare.

Changes in Ports. If the Master or Carrier, for any reason whatsoever considers it necessary or desirable in the good management of the Vessel or of the Carrier, they may cause the Vessel not to make calls at any port or ports or to land or board Passengers or their Baggage. A Passenger scheduled to land at an omitted port or place of final destination may be landed with his Baggage at the next practical port of call without any liability on the part of the Carrier. The Passenger must bear all expenses to such omitted port or place of final destination.

Carrier's Lien. The Carrier shall have a lien on (claim against and right to sell) the Baggage, money (including the fare) and any other property accompanying the Passenger to satisfy any claims it may have against the Passenger. The Carrier may enforce this lien by public or private sale in any manner and without notice except where required by applicable law.

Indemnity by Passenger. The Carrier shall have the right to be indemnified by the Passenger for all penalties, fines, charges, losses or expenses imposed upon or incurred by the Carrier or the Vessel because of the Passenger, or a minor or any other person in the Passenger's care.

10. REGULATIONS CONCERNING BAGGAGE, PERSONAL PROPERTY AND CARRIER'S LIABILITY THEREFOR

(a) Limitation of Shipments and Liability. The Carrier does not undertake to carry as Baggage any electronics, computers, merchandise, samples, furniture, household goods, tools of trade, property of persons other than the Passenger, pictures, works of art, perishable or breakable goods, glassware, liquids, bric-a-brac, money, securities and notes whether or not negotiable, documents, valuables, gold, silver, silverware, precious stones and metals or jewelry. If any such items or articles are brought aboard, the Passenger expressly agrees that the Carrier shall have no liability as bailee or Carrier or in any other capacity for loss or damage howsoever caused, even if by the negligence of the Carrier.

(b) Forbidden Items. The Passenger is not allowed to bring on board items or articles, the importation or exportation of which may be forbidden, or which do not conform to the customs or police regulations or the laws of any country to which the Vessel may go in the course of the Cruise. A Passenger who violates this rule will be held liable for all resulting fines, losses, damages or delays.

(c) Hazardous Items. The Passenger is not allowed to place in Baggage any firearms or any flammable or inflammable matter of any kind, such as matches, gunpowder, fireworks, cigarette lighters, cartridges, films, etc. The Carrier may dispose of or destroy such items without liability. The Passenger will be liable for the full amount of all loss, damage or delay to the Vessel or her cargo and for all injury to, or death of any of the Passengers, officers or crew or other persons caused by such hazardous articles brought on board by the Passenger.

(d) Allowable Weight or Cubage. Each Passenger is allowed to bring aboard Baggage not exceeding 250 pounds in weight and not exceeding 25 cubic feet in volume. The Passenger shall be charged for Baggage in excess thereof at the Carrier's current rate.

(e) Limitation of Carrier's Liability With Respect to Baggage. The Carrier's liability, if any, (and whether or not excess Baggage is carried, declared and paid for) is limited to Two Hundred and Fifty ($250) US dollars in the event of loss, damage, or delay to any or all of the Passenger's Baggage. The fare for the Cruise and the rate charged for excess Baggage are based in part on this limitation of Carrier's liability.

(f) Marking of Baggage. Each piece of baggage shall be marked with the Passenger's full name and address, cabin number, destination, and Vessel's name. The Carrier shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay resulting from the Passenger's failure to clearly mark each piece of Baggage as directed.

(g) Unclaimed Baggage. Baggage remaining unclaimed on arrival of the Vessel will be delivered to the Customs or other authorities and stored as designated by them and at the Passenger's sole risk and expense.

(h) Safe Deposit. A reasonable amount of space in a deposit box or safe on board, if the Vessel is so equipped, will be allowed to a Passenger upon request. But in consideration of the Carrier furnishing such deposit box or safe without extra cost, the Carrier's liability, if any, for loss of, or damage to, any items deposited therein shall neither be created nor increased beyond the limits set forth in Section 10(e) hereof by reason thereof.

Notice Required for Baggage Claim. Loss of or damage to Baggage during loading or disembarking must be reported by the Passenger to Carrier, Master, or Purser or other Vessel officer, prior to departing the Baggage pickup area. The Carrier shall not be responsible for any such loss or damage which is not so reported.

Suit Time for Baggage Claim. No suits shall be maintainable against the Vessel or the Carrier upon any claim in connection with this Contract relating to Baggage or any other property unless written notice of the claim, with full particulars, shall be delivered to the Carrier or its agent at its office at the port of sailing or at the port of termination within twenty-four (24) hours after termination of the Cruise. In no event shall any suit for any cause against the Vessel or Carrier with respect to Baggage or other property be maintainable unless such suit shall be commenced within six (6) months after termination of the Cruise.

Unchecked Baggage. The Carrier does not assume any responsibility for unchecked Baggage, nor for any items or articles which the Passenger retains under personal control in a cabin or elsewhere. In no event will the Carrier be liable for any damage to or loss of Baggage not in its custody.

General Average. The Passenger will not be liable to pay or entitled to receive any contribution in General Average in respect of Baggage taken with him on the Vessel.

11. CARRIER AS AGENT FOR OTHERS: USE OF SERVICES

Carrier as Agent. When the Carrier sells to the Passenger tickets, coupons, vouchers or authorization or makes arrangements for shore excursions, tours, travel or for transportation, conveyance, hotel accommodations, meals or other goods or services, the Carrier acts only as agent for those persons who, as independent contractors, own, furnish, operate, conduct, provide or handle such goods or services.

The Passenger expressly agrees that the carrier shall not be or become liable or responsible in any way for any act or omission pertaining to such goods or services or for loss, damage, delay, injury, illness or death to person or property arising out of or in connection with such goods or services so offered or provided.

Passenger's Use of Services. The Passenger using the services of the Vessel's barber, hairdressing, manicurist, or other personal service personnel, if carried on board, or athletic or recreational equipment, facilities or supplies, does so at the Passenger's own risk and expense, without any responsibility of the Carrier.

12. GENERAL LIMITATIONS ON CARRIER'S LIABILITY

The Carrier and the Vessel shall not be liable for loss, death, or delay of, or injury or illness to any Passenger, or loss of or damage or delay to his Baggage, arising from: act of God; public enemy; governmental restraint; riots; strikes; lockouts; labor troubles, whoever may be the instigators thereof; epidemic; civil disturbances of whatever nature; perils of the sea, harbors, rivers, or other navigable waters; fuel shortages or abrupt and unexpected increase in fuel costs; collision; stranding; fire; theft, barratry, or any other crime by any person;

The Passenger is hereby expressly advised that the Vessel may be powered or operated in whole or in part by nuclear power or a similar power and the Passenger hereby accepts all risks, whether known or unknown, inherent therein and agrees that the Carrier shall have no liability for injury, illness or death resulting therefrom.

13. PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS; NOTICE REQUIREMENTS AND TIME LIMITS TO CLAIM AND SUE

Any incident or accident resulting in injury, illness or death to the Passenger must be reported immediately to a Vessel's Officer. The Carrier will not be liable therefore except as provided by the law made applicable by this Contract and then only if a written claim is received by the Carrier within six (6) months of the incident or accident and suit is filed within one (1) year of the incident or accident alleged to have caused the injury, illness or death. If a written claim is not made and suit is not filed within the time provided in this Section, then the Passenger waives and releases and forever gives up any and all rights he may have to make a claim or file a suit against the Carrier for any such injury, illness or death.

14. CHOICE OF LAW: LIMITATION OF CARRIER'S LIABILITY

Applicable Law. This Ticket and Contract and all rights, liabilities and duties of the Passenger and of the Carrier will be construed in accordance with English law. The Carrier shall be entitled to the maximum protection allowed by English law, including all protection as to the amount of damages recoverable.

Limitation Carrier's Liability. The maximum total liability, if any, of the Carrier resulting from loss of life or injury to or illness of the Passenger or with respect to claims for loss of or damage to Baggage shall not exceed the amount permitted by English law. In addition to all of the limitations of and restrictions and exemptions from liability provided for in and by this Ticket and Contract, the Carrier shall also have the benefit of all limitation of and exoneration from liability and the procedures provided thereby, including but not limited to the provisions of the "Athens Convention Relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Baggage by Sea 1974" ("Athens Convention").

The Carrier shall also have the benefits of all other limitations of or exonerations from liability, and of all other benefits of any statute or law of any country which might be applicable providing for limitation of or exoneration from liability. In no event, however, will the Carrier be liable for any damage, loss, injury, illness or death not caused by the negligence of the Carrier. The fare for the Cruise is based in part on the limitation of Carrier's liability provided for in this Ticket and Contract.

15. IF LIMITATIONS ON CARRIER'S LIABILITY DO NOT APPLY

If any claim or suit is brought against the Carrier in a place where the English law and the applicable limitations, exonerations and exemptions incorporated in this Ticket and Contract, or in the Athens Convention are legally unenforceable, then the Carrier shall not be liable for death, injury, illness, damage, delay or other loss or detriment to the Passenger or his Baggage arising out of any cause of whatever nature not shown to have been caused by the Carrier's negligence and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall be limited to its proportionate share of its negligence, if any, compared to the negligence of all others whose acts or omission caused or contributed to the death, injury, illness, damage or other loss or detriment.

PLACE OF SUIT

All disputes, claims and suits and matters whatsoever arising under, in connection with or incident to this Ticket or Contract shall be brought and litigated, if at all, in and before a court of proper venue located in London, England, to the exclusion of the courts of any other city, state or country. Any such claims are to be forwarded to: N. Makin, Solicitor, 1 Church Street, Swepstone, Leicester, LE67 2SA UK.
